"Wish You Were Here" by Pink Floyd

So, so you think you can __________ Heaven from __________,
blue skies from pain.
Can you tell a ____________ field
from a cold steel rail?
A ____________ from a veil?
Do you think you can tell?
Did they get you to trade your heroes for ______________?
Hot ashes for ______________?
Hot air for a cool ______________?
Cold comfort for change?
Did you exchange
a walk on part in the ____________
for a lead role in a ______________?
How I wish, how I wish you were ____________.
We’re just two lost souls ______________ in a fish bowl, year after year, runtime over the same old ______________.
What have we found? The same old ______________.
Wish you were here.
